

AN AWARD-WINNING STUDY TOOL FOR STUDENTS: Bookshelf CoachMe®

Imagine your students having a free study coach whenever they need it. Bookshelf CoachMe, powered in partnership by VitalSource, helps them find practice questions and knowledge checks right in their eBook. They can determine what they already know, then focus on what they still need to learn.

Why Bookshelf CoachMe® for my students?

It's Free

Students access eBooks in a the app or online to use the free AI-generated study coach

Take the Guesswork out of Studying

It identifies what students know and helps them focus on what they need to learn. They show up to class feeling confident and ready to participate.

Learn by Doing

Practicing has about six times the effect on learning than reading – that's called the Doer Effect, a learning science principle.

One Place to Learn It All

No need for students to use multiple websites and study tools to prepare for class. They can take control with the ability to prepare, practice, and focus all in one place.
